HE'S OLD ENOUGH TO BE PUT TO WORK, BUT THIS GUY...
IS AS WIMPY AS HE LOOKS ...
SO I WANT YOU TO BEAT HIM INTO SHAPE, CAPTAIN.

ORCISH MIGHT IS AN ASSET TO OUR VILLAGE, BUT WE CAN'T HAVE A LIGHTWEIGHT DOING MANUAL LABOR!
SIX MONTHS ON GUARD DUTY OUGHT TO HELP TOUGHEN HIM UP A BIT.
SOUNDS GOOD! I'LL TAKE HIM ON!

The White Orc and the Village Guard Captain

WE THRIVE TOGETHER IN THIS VILLAGE, USING HUMAN SMARTS AND ORCISH STRENGTH.
HE'S A LIGHT ORC, A RACE THAT CHOSE TO LIVE WITH HUMANS.
Morning!
Morn!
I NEED YOU TO GET USED TO THE OUT-DOORS.
TRY NOT TO BE SO NERVOUS. TODAY YOU JUST HAVE TO TAG ALONG AND NOT SLOW ME DOWN.
Good morning!
WOW ...
THIS GUY IS A LOT PALER AND MORE SLENDER THAN MOST LIGHT ORCS.
BUT EVERY ORC HERE NEEDS TO WORK.
Y-YES, MA'AM.

A FEW MONTHS LATER

IT'S A GIANT LIZARD.
...SEEMS HARMLESS. LET'S IGNORE IT.

NO, LET'S TURN THIS GUY INTO DINNER. I LOVE LIZARD.
I'VE NEVER SEEN ONE THIS BIG THOUGH.
TUG
...DON'T GET COCKY. THAT THING CAN KILL YOU.

GU WAA AH!

EEK!

NA-RA!
WHAM

RIGHT, YOU'RE ALL PATCHED UP WITHOUT A SCRATCH ON YOU.
WISH I RECOVERED AS FAST.

SOME TRAINING IS SURE TO MAKE YOU STRONG-ER!

YOU'RE VERY NIMBLE! YOU SHOULD FIGHT USING AGILITY RATHER THAN STRENGTH!

NOW! GET READY!

THERE ARE TWO THINGS THAT FILL A MAN WITH CONFIDENCE.

B-BUT...

DEFEATING A POWERFUL FOE. AND...

SWING

THAT'S ENOUGH DILLY-DALLYING!

HERE I COME!

PRESENTED BY
ASAKI TAKAYUKI

Lady Knight Rahel and the Viridian Pitter-Patter
This is the first thing I did when I started drawing original doujinshi. It's a simple rape story with the classic goblin villains, but I added a bit of a twist in the humiliation department Rahel and Dafvid are forced to have sex with each other. The goblins simply enjoy watching...
Goblins are actually pretty clever They're still demi-humans, even if they live in the wild.

Lady Knight Rahel and the Silvery Forest Fang

I'VE NEVER HEARD OF THIS MANY...

The Black Slime and the Female Knight

The inspiration for this story is a metal called gallium. I watched a science experiment where they used it to break down aluminum, and thought, "I wanna do that to a female knight!" But I never followed through on that idea

This black slime feeds on metal, but is otherwise harmless There may or may not exist a town with an under-ground show where you can watch lady knights duel black slimes.

THE MOON IS DAZZLING TONIGHT.

AFTERWORD

Sable Ears and 10,000 Good Deeds

The catalyst for this story was me wanting to try my hand at drawing a gentle dark elf. For erotic fantasy manga, I love the theme of love blossoming between races. It must take a lot of determination to dedicate your life to someone like that, especially when you take their different life spans into consideration. But when two people still choose love against all odds, that bond must be much stronger than that of a same race couple... Granted I've never dated an elf, so I can't say for sure.

The White Orc and the Village Guard Captain
The first fantasy chapter I drew for a commercial publication. Wanting to remove the "bad guy" label from orcs I chose a race I called White Orc that lives with humans. Cross-racial romance is definitely one of my favorite themes.

The Nighttide Dweller and the Holy Woman
A story about a battle nun performing an exorcism. Women of the cloth and womb tattoos don't normally go together, so I wanted to see how that would work out. Seeing a devout believer who strives for purity turn into a massive slut is a real turn-on. I...love nuns.

The Adventurer and the Tiny Trinket Trader
For this crazy setting I went for a dark-skinned legal loli with giant tits... As long as she's short with big boobs, it fits the bill. Let's say her eccentric way of speaking is consistent across her race.

The Dark Ogres and the Young Lady's Guardian Knight
I hadn't drawn many dark rape stories, so I wanted to challenge myself with this one. I got really carried away working on it, couldn't fit everything in one chapter, and it ended up turning into a two-parter. There are no females in this race of ogres, so they use females from similar races to procreate. Kinda like the goblins which are all the rage nowadays.

Slave Market
The female knight doesn't say a single word in this chapter. Although, in this world, humans and the other races don't speak the same language, so they wouldn't understand her anyway. The human race isn't at the top of the "food chain" here. They could even be sold at an auction. This is Jana-san from "The Dark Ogres and the Young Lady's Guardian Knight". I drew them out of order though.

Lady Knight Rahel and the Silvery Forest Fang
Rahel's second outing. I wanted to draw everyone's favorite fantasy flora, the "mandragora". A rare plant used in secret arts and medicine. If it's that valuable, it makes sense that someone would grow them. That was the starting point for this chapter. I picked a werewolf, a race more intelligent than humans. Did you like it?

The Oni Comes
Oni = bean scattering. That was the motif here. You scatter beans to chase off an oni, but it's not like the beans themselves have any destructive power. When an oni sees beans tossed on the ground, they can't help but to start counting them, and you use that peculiar habit to render it powerless. Of course, that goes for this lady as well, but apparently she also hates holly and sardines.

Nice to meet you, or should that be hello again, I'm Asaki Takayuki.
I used to mostly draw petite girls in the past, but these last couple years, "girls in armor" has been a theme in both my self-published and commercial works. If you knew the old Asaki, you might ask yourself, "what the hell happened??" The truth is I've been a huge fan of warrior women ever since I was a child, inspired by properties like the D. Quest games and the Record of a Certain War novels. It's only lately that I feel I've gotten good enough to actually draw that content, so I've spent these last few years indulging in that lifelong fascination. I'm very fortunate this coincided with the fantasy boom we've seen in recent years, so I want to ride this wave and fully enjoy decking out and stripping girls of their armor. The surrounding world of an ero manga artist is only getting harsher, but I want to keep drawing and not give up, so I hope you'll continue to support me.

I want to thank my editor and the editorial department for letting me draw what I want.
And my biggest thanks goes out to all of you readers.

Maidens of Steel

Asaki Takayuki

Cover Idea 02
The idea was to have her armor torn off by some mysterious force...
But it was really tricky to get that across on paper, so I abandoned the concept. Besides, the final design is much cooler anyway.

"Say What" pose
Cover Idea 01
For the cover design, I chose to prioritize "cool" over "sexy."
My goal was to have the readers go, "Is this really an ero manga cover?"
I still wanted to draw boobs, though.
